WITH THE FARMERS

Farm Bureau Official Information

BLOODED SIRE IN GOOD MILK TESTS

Increased Production 83-Per Cent First Cross and 180 Per Cent Second.

By LEWIS C. FRENCH

Many farmers milking a string of scrub cows really want to own better cattle but fear the cost. They are anxious to improve the milking qualities of their herds and really enter the dairy business. Here's the answer.

Since 1907 the Iowa experimental station has conducted what is now known as the Iowa Purebred Sire Investigation, to determine the influence of purebred bulls in increasing the production of milk and butter from a foundation of scrub cows.

The net result from the years of testing and recording has established the fact that good producing and highly profitable herds may be built from a foundation of common cows.

Need Blooded Sire

The initial expense for the building up of a herd of common cows is a good purebred sire. Breed associations of Iowa county have shown desire to co-operate in a county-wide campaign to push the scrub bull from every farm by quoting reduced prices on registered bulls good enough to grade herds. At one time the Holstein association offered good quality bull calves for $25, and any farmer can afford to pay this and more for every scrub sire costs him 10 times this amount in reduced production powers.

The cattle used in the Iowa test were purchased in 1907 from a section where no purebreds had previously been used. The animals were scrubs, small, with no vein development, and poor individuals. The sire used was the herd bull at the college dairy farm. They were not high priced, but they were bred for type and yearly production.

The determining value of a bull is a comparison of the production of his daughters with that of their dams.

Production Increased

The offspring in nearly every case showed improvement in body conformation, persistency of milk flow and more economical production. A good flow of milk for a short period is not desirable. One of the main reasons why scrubs show such production is the lack of persistency.

The average milk production of the scrub dams was 2,682 pounds of milk and 175.13 pounds of fat. The daughters of these scrub dams, sired by blooded bulls, averaged 6,743 pounds of milk and 276.70 pounds of fat. The daughters of the scrub dams averaged 10,325.5 pounds of milk and 399.48 pounds of fat. Some difference.

Cheese Production

The first generation increased milk production 83 per cent, and fat 58 per cent. The second generation increased milk 180 per cent and the fat 128 per cent.

How long can any farmer delay building up and improving his herd with such proof as this in the abilities of registered sires to increase milk production? Not only milk production increases, but the offspring will have market value as breeding stock. The purebred sire has been tried and not found wanting.

Scrubs are the least economical producers, and the Iowa test showed that the three-quarters blood gave the cheapest milk production. Certainly it is worth the farmer's investment of a registered bull to increase his milk production even 25 per cent, let alone 83 and 180 per cent, as it did in the Iowa test.

It is no time to carry life prejudice against blooded stock when dairying is on such a narrow margin.

Rock County Herd

Look at the production records of the Holstein herd at the Rock county farm. Until a few years ago the herd was of no credit to the county. They were just "scrubs".

Under the management of Archie Cullen, good blood was slowly introduced into the herd of just fair grades and a few blooded dams purchased. No great amount of money was used to buy registered bulls.

The C. T. A. records for March show that 37 cows on the farm produced more than 43,000 pounds of milk. The average butterfat test on these cows for the month is 39.3 pounds. There are 18 cows producing better than 40 pounds. And some of the best production records are grades sired by registered bulls.

Only Blooded Bulls

In the Fort Atkinson testing association 115 Guernseys and 351 Holsteins averaged 7,858 pounds of milk and 338.5 pounds of fat. The top cow was a grade Holstein owned by John Morse, milked twice a day, with a record of 15,019 pounds, containing 60.74 pounds fat. This cow was sired by a blooded bull who transmitted this production ability into his daughter. The record was true in the case of the Rock county herd. A blooded sire changed a herd of only fair grades into a championship family of grades in but one generation. There is no logical reason why there should be a scrub bull on any Rock county farm. They cost the most in the long run. They cost little and they return even less.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Editor Gazette:

An open letter to Harry W. Dettmer, R. F. D. No. 1, Hanover, Wis. Brother Dettmer, I read with pleasure your article on the highway 20 and that you could have driven through to Janesville with your car on the 14th of March, but had trouble with snow on the new route 20. That is a good argument that the old route 20 is quite good enough for local travel and the new route 20 will be all right for your car when they get the concrete down so the snow will blow off. And I will say further if that snow goes off with a big rain you will have to take a boat to get out of Hanover.

Brother Dettmer, I was a "cloud burst" that flooded the Hanover road last spring so it was impossible for many days, but I have looked down on the highway 20 and many years from Hanover hill and have seen "cloud bursts" every time we have a spring freshet.

I do not blame Mr. Dettmer for his fine farm, but good engineering on the new route 20 will be shorter, much cheaper, straighter, one rail and more crossing, the old route 3, and more perfect for "through traffic".

Yours respectfully for good roads, K. J. BENNIS

PRESIDENT SEES OUTSIDE CAUSES FOR SUGAR JUMP

advance prices. The duty increase might be slight in itself, but if it is sufficient to discourage outside production for the American market, those who have accumulated stocks of sugar in the meantime, are in a position to demand higher prices at least until the next crop can come in to compete with the domestic supply.

Like Labor Demand.

The investigation by the department of justice is more likely to disclose circumstances of this kind, though it is an open question whether or not American sugar interests can be held culpable for taking advantage of the operation of the economic laws of supply and demand any more than union labor has ever been prosecuted for advancing a restricted immigration, which in the end sends the price of labor upward because of the shortage created. But until the immigration, the president has a power with relation to tariff duties on which the sugar interests may not have counted. These changes have not feared a reduction in duty because they thought the president would not dare to reduce the sugar duty after all the argument made during the last session of congress with reference to the needs of sugar interests in the United States.

All Households Hit.

Mr. Harding, however, intends to go through with the program announced in his telegram to Chairman Marvin of the tariff commission. If he finds a reduction of duty is likely to bring about a more satisfactory market for the consumer, he will not hesitate to use the flexible provisions of the tariff law, which permit him to revise a duty downward by 50 per cent. Sugar is something which touches every household, and Mr. Harding will not, if he can help it, give the democrats ammunition whereby they can attack the economic life of the next year, and a half to the Fordney-McCumber tariff law.

The president has indicated already that he thinks some of the provisions of the Fordney law were unnecessarily high, but he has promised to use the powers of the tariff commission to make inquiries and to avail himself of the executive discretion vested in him by congress in correcting these defects. The republican leaders plan to answer attacks on the tariff by saying they have created a bipartisan tariff commission for the very purpose of giving the country the facts and for the additional purpose of advising the president of defects in the tariff law. Mr. Harding, therefore, enjoys an advantage which Mr. Taft did not have when he admitted that the famous schedule "K" was indefensible. Mr. Harding can admit an inequity in the tariff today and go ahead and correct it tomorrow long before the election has a chance to voice its disapproval.

Although the president is ready to proclaim a reduction in sugar duty, there is a feeling here that the mere threat of action will bring about a drop in sugar prices, for if once the duty is cut the sugar protectionists would have a hard time getting it up again.

Miss Janesville Says—

I was yesterday why one place has a punch board and other places are not permitted to display them.

One Janesville man who keeps a soft drink place and has never sold any punch board is constantly annoyed by men who come in and want some while male or doge road. In many cases the solicitor for a drink is already intoxicated, and the punch board is likely to be damaged. The load was acquired there, all of which is deeply embarrassing. I would suggest that moon shine parlors display signs.

Time for the bakers to mix, the dough for the proverbial hot cross buns which make their appearance with Good Friday.

The woman who only bowed once in her life, and that time accompanied her husband to the city hall, at each throw, says she just hates bowing. She wonders why so many people like it. She says she gets almost excited at home doing her housework without running elsewhere for exercise.

With all the stores in town on wheels, and various car parts, even in show windows and much hawking of blue and white, Janesville merchants welcomed the Chevrolet officials.

The jolly Chinese who collects at Cossy Inn is puzzled as to the origin of the expression "Dutch treat." Nightly he is beset by belligerent American women who insist on his treating them to a drink. He is tired of their desire for paying for half an order of the various vials consumed. If there are an even number in the party it works out just as it could, but if there is an odd one, then Mr. Cossy Cashier sometimes has to go 50-50 with the odd customer.

While your husband and the other woman's husband are quarreling, how many tons of coal they have burned this winter, you and the other wife might exchange confidences on the life and ordinariness of the coal business, and the advantages of a "retouch" as means of rejuvenation.

Real boosters for Janesville are the automobile dealers of compulsion. They are the ones who push Chevrolet labels and welcome signs on their store windows. Wednesday. It was prompted by the spirit which speaks well for the future of Janesville.

Maybe folks like to use football tactics and be subjected to the same treatment, for Janesville does love the south side of Milwaukee street. There is a busy Saturday night how the heavy traffic is on the south side with folks going in both directions, while the north sidewalk is left practically deserted. It is a question whether traffic ought to be directed like automobiles. Keep to the right and you'll never get left.

They say at the postoffice that if you mail your letters before four o'clock in the afternoon, they will get much better service, as they will be out before the five o'clock jam starts.

TANLAC PRAISED BY FOOD EXPERT

Declares It Is One Medicine He Can Recommend for Digestive Troubles.

"After I took Tanlac a while the boys in the camp used to remark: 'Frank, you look as fit as a two-year-old.' That's just how I feel right now, even after my hard season of looking for those husbands who have gone to the matter of the fact way in which Frank Brown, 208 5th St., Milwaukee, Wis., expert chef, told of his experience with Tanlac.

"Stomach trouble," he said, "had me where it was about all I could do to keep going. Had plenty of good rationing, but the boys liked, but I had no appetite at all. I would eat if I ate even a doughnut, and other foods I would eat with gas till I nearly smothered. My nerves were unstrung and dizzy spells nearly toppled me over."

"A fifteen pound gain, first class appetite and digestion, tells me twelve bottles of Tanlac did for me better than if I talked all day. It is the one medicine I sure can recommend."

JEWS TO OBSERVE PASSOVER FEAST FOR EIGHT DAYS

Passover, to be observed starting this week in Jewish homes in Janesville, is an outgrowth of a remote Jewish spring festival. At an early date it became associated with historical events and now is a combined national, religious and natural festival. A time after the deliverance from Egyptian bondage which was in the spring of the year, the Israelites coupled their day of thankfulness and spring-time exuberance.

The feast of Passover, or unleavened bread, begins this year at sundown Saturday and lasts for eight days. Orthodox Jews throughout the world will join in the celebration. During this period, Jews abstain from eating leaven in any form, using mainly matzo instead. The first and last two days are holy days and services are held in all synagogues, and in Janesville, where there is none, in private homes.

The evening preceding the first day is particularly important and is known as "Seder Night." The purpose is to unite members of the family and friends about the table and to eat matzo, sing and perform such rituals as are told about in "Haggadah," the book which enumerates the chief events in the exodus of the children of Israel from Egypt. That and the symbols used during this period revive the hardships that these people suffered, and tends to make present-day Jews pensive.

Symbols of the festival are the unleavened cake (matzo), reminding the Jews of the only food the Jews had to eat on their hurried flight from Egypt; the bitter herbs, symbolizing the bitterness felt by these people; and the Paschal lamb shank, which symbolizes the sprinkling of lamb's blood on doors of Jewish homes, and over which the plague passed.

MANAGER CHOSEN FOR MARKETING CO.

Fred Blizard, New York Executive, Takes Charge of Milk Pool.

Fred Blizard, West Town, N. Y., has been named general manager of the Milk Producers' Marketing company, Chicago. This announcement was sent out Thursday from the Chicago office of the Marketing company to milk producers in the Chicago district pool.

On April 1, Blizard takes over his new duties. The committee of nine has ratified all details in securing a qualified general manager to take full charge.

The new manager has 31 years of experience, and is not only that of a trained executive in management with the Borden company, but in addition he has been connected with the dairy business operating a dairy farm in New York.

Headed Borden Plants. It was back in 1922 that Fred Blizard began his training with the Borden Products company, at Johnsons, New York. After nine years he went to New York City and was appointed manager of the Borden bottling works in 1930. Two years later all the Borden factories were consolidated and Blizard was made general manager of production with 150 plants under his supervision. In this capacity his executive duties included not only the direct supervision of the production end of the business but also the manufacturing in all plants of the Borden organization in both the United States and Canada.

After 22 years continuous service with the Borden company, Blizard severed his relations to retire on his farm in Orange county, New York. He began a special study of the problems of the New York dairymen.

Price Averages $2.10. A full report on the January operations of the Milk Producers' Marketing company shows that more than 10,000,000 pounds of milk was handled through two pools—0.043, 773 in the fluid milk pool and 5,413,592 in the manufactured. The average net price to the producer in each pool was $2.10 per hundred.

"Although farmers who sold through the Marketing company received 40 cents less than the Borden price, yet it is safe to say that condition is temporary. Anyone who knows conditions in the Chicago district knows that without the Marketing company, the dealers would not have paid the $2.10 price. It is doubtful if the dealers would have paid as much as $2—more like the price a year ago," reads the press statement.

Beloit Shows Results. In Beloit there was a meeting of the dairymen in the pool signed on the Sapiro contract. ## START A LIBRARY FOR CHILDREN

The Bible is, or should be, the cornerstone library. All boys and girls should be given an early chance to know the Bible. Reading the Bible is the surest and best foundation for a liberal education. In the estimation of great scholars and teachers the Bible stands first in literary merit.

No matter what religion may be yours, or in what faith you wish your child raised, you do want it to grow in whatever knowledge is considered essential for general culture. Put the Bible in your children's hands and the story of the Bible will naturally follow. The child will be able to acquire it, but it may not be as easy later on, as the effort is limited as to time, and because of the limited number of copies which the publisher considered our proportion for local distribution.

All Night School

Classes at End

Tonight's session of a number of night school classes will mark the end of the season, and inactivity in this line will reign until next fall. Some classes were dismissed last week, as instructors are out of the city during public school spring vacation. Others had their final sessions, Monday night, and will finish their work Thursday night. Cards are to be handed in by those who had an 85 per cent attendance, and the $2 premium will be awarded.

It was declared to be one of the best seasons in many years, and plans have already been started for increased activity next fall, when the influx of population will create much more demand for classes.

TRAINING SCHOOL TO CLOSE FOR 2 DAYS

The address made many points clear to the students who will thereby be in a better position to cooperate with the nurse when they become teachers next year.

THOUSANDS PAID BY TOBACCO POOL

Second Block of Checks Sent Out, Hitting 50 Per Cent.

Checks totaling many thousands were sent out through the Janesville office of the Northern Wisconsin Co-operative Tobacco pool on Thursday to pay growers an additional amount on their crops sold for the first time through the state-wide central marketing agency. The checks cover tobacco owned by growers who made deliveries prior to March 1.

In the pool sent out about $1,000,000 in Wisconsin growers and a considerable part of this aggregate was distributed in Dane and Rock counties.

With this payment, growers have received more than 50 percent on the straight run of crops delivered. Stemming tobacco was paid in advance at a rate of about one-third and the checks now in the mails cover another third and about 15 cents additional amount on fillers.

May Pack Crops. Estimates show that 75 percent of the stemming tobacco grown last year in Rock county has been delivered to the pool. Receiving dates next week will take in a bulk of the rest of the stemming stock still on the farm.

There will be 325,000 delivered in Janesville on Monday; 100,000 pounds on Tuesday; 60,000 pounds in Orfordville on Wednesday; and 50,000 pounds in Evansville on Thursday.

Sorting tobacco is moving slowly and there are prospects that a part of the lower grades of sorting crops will be graded by the pool.

A decision is expected early next week from Judge E. V. Werner on the injunction proceedings taken by the pool against northern buyers. All evidence and briefs have been submitted.

The good tobacco is selling well and fast. It was stated by the pool officers here. It is the ordinary crop that is hard to move. It is not a matter of price but a matter of quality. There is good demand for the B-1 and B-2 grades selling at 24 and 22 cents and the trouble is there are not sufficient crops to meet these grades.

This year has proven that through the pool the growers will obtain quality prices for quality tobacco, which

Stronger Teams Roll Thursday; ABC Marks Hang

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Milwaukee—Scoring in Wednesday's play in the American Bowling Congress tournament here, the Milwaukee team rolled a 700 total, none of the totals rolled being high enough to place in the five leaders of the different events.

Jimmy Smith of Milwaukee, former world champion, rolled the highest in the singles division when he totaled 682 on games of 218, 237 and 227. Smith was joined throughout the game by his partner, who rolled 218, 237 and 227. Smith was joined throughout the game by his partner, who rolled 218, 237 and 227.

In the seventh frame of his final game a break kept him from placing high in the singles event. He hit the pins then, sweeping the maples to the left side of the alley, bunching four pins around the number seven pin, leaving the number one pin standing. This strike kept him from a 700 total.

A Milwaukee two-man team again rolled the highest total in the doubles event, H. H. Schaefer and D. Miller counting 1,245.

A Chicago team, the Mendis, came in for a large share of the prize money in the team event. They rolled a 1,245 total, which was the highest of any team.

New York, Newark, Indianapolis, Detroit and Chicago teams were eliminated on the drives Thursday night, with the Claman Dairy lunch team of Indianapolis being picked to roll into the place in the team event.

Standings of the leaders:

Five Man Event—Petersen Parkers, Chicago, 2,941; Schwab-Potlacks, Buffalo, 2,932; Belmont Drugs, Toledo, 2,915; Brooks Oil, Cleveland, 2,915; Peoples Gas Co., No. 1, Chicago, 2,914.

Doubles—F. Kolacko, J. Jacobs, Milwaukee, 1,295; O. Klatt, J. Burckhardt, Chicago, 1,285; J. Clayton, J. Ostrander, Toledo, 1,281; W. Nicholas, C. Frank, Louisville, 1,276; W. Tossier, E. Pierce, Chicago, 1,276.

Singles—C. Baumgartner, Cincinnati, 724; M. MacDowell, Cleveland, 712; W. Elwert, Toledo, 711; P. Wilson, Toledo, 705; C. Schenk, Syracuse, 700.

All Events—M. MacDowell, Cleveland, 2,903; J. Chlertoff, Buffalo, 2,945; C. Moses, Toledo, 1,936; T. Dunn, Chicago, 1,932; J. Bower, Duquesne, 1,929.

Unkept Diamond Hurts 3 Tygers

Detroit—Three members of the Detroit American League team were unfit for duty Thursday, the result of injuries sustained on an unkept diamond at Rome, Ga., where a practice game with the Rochester International was staged Wednesday. The casualties were Lou Blue, Harry Heilmann and Sylvester Johnson. Blue and Heilmann developed "charley horses" the former through his efforts to hang on to the side of a hill and guard first base and the latter trying to negotiate uncertain terrain in the confusion. Johnson stepped into a hole on the edge of the pitcher's box and pulled a muscle.

The injury to the hurler sent Ty Cobb to the mound for the final three innings, the manager preferring to risk his own safety than that of some indistinguishable boxman.

Johnny Neim and Henry Manush left at the training camp at Augusta on this summer to join the regulars at Talladega, Ala., for the remainder of the trip.

POSTPONE BASKET GAME OF S. S. LOOP

The second game of the series between the Christian Science Sunday school basketball team and the St. Patrick's, which was to have been played Wednesday night, was postponed because of high water.

Rome—Doctors of medicine of all nations, to the number of 200, have been invited to join an excursion this summer to the principal thermal resorts of Italy. Invited to accompany the medical men who will have a special train at their disposal and be housed in the best hotels.

Busy Man's Sport Page

By FRANK SINCLAIR

APPARENTLY, home talent baseball has hit a popular chord. If it had not, Footville and Brodhead would not be anxious to get into such a circuit. The proposed second baseball league of this type for southern Wisconsin is but the natural answer to the searching of sportsmen for relief from the evils of the professional game. It is an indication that the people in this section are beginning to realize they may have as good, or better, a time watching their own boys perform.

WHY is it that Janesville seems so indifferent to its athletic talent in both basketball and high school teams? This was the question asked by a sportsman Monday night. He believes it is because teams are handled by individuals and there is not a spirit of city-wide loyalty in the things that are Janesville. Whether other people have to say along this line?

THIS FELLOW decided himself in favor of a city athletic association, an organization that would be the clearing house for sports. It would be a body that would be backed by every civic, social and athletic organization of the city. It would have the support of the business men. It would be the expression of Janesville in a sports way. What do you think of that for an idea?

STILL FURTHER, this chap said that under such a city organization, greater general participation might be possible. Athletics would be boosted; attendance would become greater; an auditorium for sports might be made possible; and a real city athletic field a reality. He pointed to the example set by Watertown and the success there.

THIS MAN believes Janesville needs a municipal golf links. He holds that the best way to get such a facility would be through an athletic association. He says the city would be instantly popular. He points to the new park on Rock river as the logical site. These are the remarks of a man who came here several years ago and who believes in Janesville and sees its future.

Stuvengen of Orfordville Signed by Worcester Club

Orfordville—Charles Stuvengen (Chuck) Stuvengen left here Wednesday morning for Worcester, Mass., where he will play ball for the coming season with the club of that city, occupying first base.

Stuvengen was born in Orfordville and is 25 years of age. After finishing the grades in the village school he went to Beloit where he secured employment and availed himself of the opportunity to engage in athletics. Once while there he and a companion, dressed in their "Gym" suits ran from the "Line City" to Orfordville, covering 15 miles in two hours. When on a hunting expedition last fall, in northern Wisconsin he shouldered a buck weighing 180 pounds and carried it four miles to camp. He stands six feet, four inches and weighs 210 pounds.

When war was declared, he enlisted and was assigned to the Aviation camp at Dhrifley field, Ill., where he became proficient, occupying a place in one of the planes which conveyed President Wilson out of New York Harbor, on his first trip to France.

Molander jumping center when the Rockford team played here, was the star for Rockford, playing forward together with Evans. Sinks, of the Rockford team, at center was another half of the center position.

The Janesville team winds up a successful season Saturday night, playing the much feared Elgin, Ill. Y. W. C. A. team at the armory. The Y. W. C. A. board will entertain the teams both home and visiting at a banquet afterward. A rally will be held at the rooms before the game.

FUTURE WORK UP TO NEW COUNCIL

Aldermen Go Slow with Government Change Due April 17.

Pending the change from the council to the managerial form of government here, April 17, the city engineering department is finishing up old work and is outlining no definite plans for the future. It is a sort of "waiting time" process which will be continued until the new government gets into action, the present council having refrained by mutual consent from authorizing any new work of importance. This is generally the case with the change from one form of government to another.

The only big project authorized the past few months by the council is the laying of a 1,000-foot stretch of sewer in Mackey boulevard from the Jackson street bridge to Eastern avenue. This was considered an immediate necessity in order to connect up with the new main outlet sewer, making more healthful conditions by disposing with emptying sewage into the river at Jackson street.

Other Small Jobs While a few small sewer jobs may be authorized by the present council before it adjourns, it is not expected that any more large projects are authorized. One of the minor jobs probable is a short stretch of sewer on Augusta street.

It is possible that some water mains will be ordered laid by the council now in place, notably one on Pleasant street, in case the county decides to build a highway over the new route. It is also possible that 16-inch main extensions will be made to the Eastern avenue pipe, as the material is now on hand and may as well be used. Under the old charter, the board of public works was required to outline this year's sewer program the first Monday in March, but the general charter under which the city is now operating makes no such provision. City Engineer C. V. Kerch explained.

Paving Starts April 15 Paving operations on North First street will begin about April 15, Mr. Kerch said. If weather permits, the job is one authorized in 1922 but held over to this year owing to pipe delays. The contract has been let by the board of public works to the bid of public works to the James-Mountain-Hayes company of Janesville, and this probably will be approved by the council.

The city engineering department will have charge of this two-block job. Another project which must be carried out by the department next month is the making of a complete survey of 132-acre Riverside park, purchased by the city last year. This is necessary before any changes or improvements can be made.

While acquisition of property to widen the westerly approach to Racine street bridge probably will be made by the present council, indications are that the actual work of widening it will not be done until after asphalt work is begun, Mr. Kerch said.

The city engineer is now working to establish a grade on Eastern avenue, from Center avenue east toward the Chevrolet plant, so that the street may be graded and sidewalks laid.

LATE OPENING OF SOO IS EXPECTED Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.—Continuance of unprecedented March storms has led local marine men to predict a belated opening of navigation this year. A temperature of 15 degrees below zero Wednesday was accompanied by a 50 mile gale that piled snow more than 20 feet high in places. Business virtually was suspended and no railway or traction lines are in operation.

Reports from rural districts are that some business houses are almost buried under the snow.

Ice in St. Mary's river is almost three feet thick in places.

Navigational last year opened on April 27, but marine men predict it will be May 1 before the first vessel passes through the locks.

Highway Trailer Case Only One Left for Jury

Work for J. Rhodes drawn on the March term venire, was concluded Wednesday except for the 12 who will try the Highway Trailer-Janesville Electric company suit in May, when by motion of the plaintiff, the suit of J. Rhodes, Elmer Blodgett, and Paul C. Cox against Harry Smith, over alleged failure to pay a commission for sale of a farm owned by the latter, was dismissed by Judge George Grimm.

The motion was made after C. J. Rhodes, and Paul Cox, testifying, had established the case for the plaintiffs. Judge Grimm will go home Friday morning and probably will not be here until April 18 when he plans to call the court calendar for which more than 60 cases are listed. The judge and Court Reporter Francis Grant will be busy at Jefferson for more than two weeks, and probably up until the time he comes to Janesville.

The first case scheduled for jury trial at Jefferson is the Ixonia Farm Products company against Charles Struss, for April 2, and that of Jahnik vs. Struss, for April 4. Listed for the calendar April 9 are: Watertown vs. Cady; Zastrow vs. Zastrow; Kuchin vs. Kuchin; Edgerton vs. company vs. Drew, and American Exchange bank vs. G.H. Klinger vs. Whitmore will be heard April 12, and Pazel vs. School District, Hase vs. Hase, and Ninedorf vs. Ninedorf are listed for April 17.

EXPLAIN WET MOVE, EDICT

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.) Washington.—Assistant Secretary Moss Wednesday called on Collector Stuart of the customs house at New York for a full explanation of the order, issued March 19 by Thomas W. Whittle, surveyor of that port, permitting passengers on incoming steamships to land with one quart of liquor for medicinal purposes.

Doctors Discuss Babies' Diseases

A two hour clinic conducted by Dr. Arthur Grulice, famous baby specialist of Chicago, was the feature of the March meeting of the Rock County Medical society held at Mercy hospital, Tuesday night. It was probably the best meeting of the year, and was attended by 50 physicians and the entire nursing staff of the Janesville hospital.

Dr. Grulice examined three infants, including twins, and three older children, and recommended treatment for the cases. He was assisted by Dr. R. C. Hartman, Janesville. Dr. Grulice also talked on spasms in infants and of the difference between this condition and epileptic fits which are entirely different.

The case of diabetic coma in an infant being treated successfully by Dr. Thomas J. Snodgrass was presented by Dr. Frank Van Kirk, and the treatment with insulin, the new medicine for this condition was explained by Dr. Snodgrass.

A general discussion followed the program. Dinner preceded the meeting. The next meeting will be in Beloit with Drs. W. G. Melas, and E. E. Brinckerhoff, Beloit; C. K. Wool, Janesville; A. P. Guilfoyle, Evansville and A. S. Parker, Clinton, having charge. The subject will be genito-urinary diseases.

MADISON CAB FIRM ASKS VACATION OF JUDGMENT OF $600

Vacation of judgment and dismissal of the action on the grounds that the amount claimed is not due, is asked by attorneys for the Yellow Cab and Transfer company, Madison, defendants in an action brought by the Carl-Prancis company, Janesville. The Janesville insurance concern recently had a judgment on cognovit entered in its favor in the Rock county circuit court for $632, amount due for a note for $7,800 dated Dec. 18, 1922 and due in 30 days, and which covered insurance.

The defendants claim a rebate of $384.27 which accrued in their favor on Aug. 2, 1922 when a new insurance rate was given, is not credited, and that plaintiff cancelled insurance on Jan. 17, 1923 without consent or request of the defendants, and also charged the new rate instead of a short rate premium should have been charged.
